COUNTRY PROFILE – GRENADA

Location

The state of Grenada is made up of three main islands which are the most southerly of the Windward Islands. The mainland, Grenada, is 21 miles long and 12 miles wide, and is situated at 12 degrees latitude and 61 degrees longitude. The sister island of Carriacou lies 23 miles north-east of Grenada and Petite Martinique is located 2 miles off Carriacou. There are several other smaller off shore islands.

Area

The State of Grenada is a total of 133 square miles. The main island, Grenada is 120 square miles, sister isles, Carriacou, 13 square miles and Petite Martinique, 586 acres.

Population

The population of Grenada is just over 100, 000.

Language

English

Currency

East Caribbean (EC) dollar, approx $2.67

Time

Time Atlantic Standard Time (GMT – 4, EST + 1)

Climate

The average year-round temperature is 27 degrees C.

History

Grenada became an Independent State within the British Commonwealth on 7 February, 1974. Originally inhabited by Arawaks and Caribs, Grenada was sighted by Christopher Columbus during his third voyage in 1498. During the Colonial wars of the 18th century, Grenada changed hands several times between the British and the French, and was finally ceded to Britain in 1783.

The Political System

The political system is democracy based on the Westminster model, consisting of the Head of State, the Legislature and the Executive. The Government is headed by a Prime Minister supported by a Cabinet of Ministers, and is elected for a five-year term.

Head of State

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, Represented by a Governor-General, His Excellency Sir. Carlyle Clean, GCMG

Head of Government

Prime Minister
Honourable Tillman Thomas, MP

The Judiciary

The OECS Supreme Court

Accommodation

Grenada's visitor accommodations includes Five Star all-inclusive resorts, Luxury Hotels, Villas, Guesthouses and Holiday Cottages, to name a few. A 10 percent VAT and 10 percent service charge is normal.

Communications

Maurice Bishop International Airport, previously, called Point Salines International, is located at the Southern tip of the island and accommodates commercial jets, as well as smaller Inter-island carriers. American Airlines, American Eagle and Caribbean Airlines (now incorporating Air Jamaica) provides nonstop services, as well as connecting services from the USA. Delta Airlines also provides direct flights between Grenada and New York. Connecting services via Caribbean Airlines are also available out of Canada. British Airways, Virgin Atlantic and Monarch Airlines provide direct and connecting services out of London. Condor provides winter services out of Germany; while there are various summer charters out of Canada. LIAT and SVG Airlines provide Inter-Island services, and Conviassa provides flights to Venezuela via Trinidad and the island of Margarita.

Postal Information

The State of Grenada has access to efficient local, regional and International mailing services, via the Grenada Postal Corporation. This is enhanced by courier services offered by DHL, Federal Express and LIAT Quik Pak.

Telecommunications

International Direct-Dialing is available 24 hours per day, as well as cellular and boat phones. LIME Grenada Ltd. (formerly Cable & Wireless) provides telecommunication services into and out of Grenada. Land lines are also available from Columbus Communications (FLOW) Grenada; while Mobile services are also provided by LIME and DIGICEL. Cable television is available throughout the islands through the services of Columbus Communications (FLOW); while direct TV is available, though not widespread. Grenada also boasts several FM/AM Radio Stations.

Electricity

Electricity in Grenada is 220 Volts, alternating at 50 cycles per second. Transformers will be required for appliances which do not accept 220 volts at 50 hertz. The Grenada Electricity Services Ltd (GRENLEC) is the sole provider of electricity throughout the State.

Agriculture

Nutmegs and Mace, Cocoa and Bananas are Grenada's traditional export Crops. In addition, Grenada produces a wide range of spices, thus earning itself the name 'Isle of Spice'. The island's non-traditional Agriculture Sector has been considered one of the most diversified in the Caribbean, producing a variety of vegetables, root crops and fruits.
