Remarks ‡

* Notes: The possession of this Emergency Passport is not conclusive evidence of national status and does not exempt the holder from compliance with any immigration regulations in force in the Commonwealth country of destination. If, however, the destination is shown as Grenada the holder is assured of admission there without further formalities.

† The Emergency Passport should be completed in full by the office of issue. When it has to be issued before sailing or other particulars are known, it is sufficient to show the form of transport to be used, e.g., rail, sea, or air.

‡ Such as purpose of journey, address in country of destination (in cases of repatriation), and previous passport particulars.
