NOTE

(1) If any member of the crew is unable to sign his name his mark should be witnessed by a responsible Officer of the ship.
(2) If there is nothing to be declared the word “NIL” should be inserted.
NOTICE

To Master, Officers and Crew of vessels arriving from abroad regarding goods obtained abroad or during the voyage.

1. This form must be completed in readiness to be handed to the Customs Boarding Officer who first visits the vessel. It must be signed by each member of the crew (including the Master and Officers) who must state opposite his signature the quantity of goods in his possession. When more sheets than one are required they should be fastened together and numbered consecutively and each sheet, other than the last which is signed, must be initialed.

2. All articles obtained abroad during the voyage must be declared.

3. Any goods found in the vessel which have not been declared, will be liable to forfeiture and the person concerned may be fined or prosecuted and the goods may be liable to forfeiture.

4. Members of a crew who remain on a vessel during her stay in port will be allowed to retain in their possession for their own use on board a daily allowance of:

   Tobacco in any form .............................................. 2 ounces
   Spirits (including liqueurs and cordials) ......................... ½ reputed pint
   Wine ........................................................................ 1 reputed pint or such allowance as may be agreed in the ship’s articles

   Such goods must not be landed, nor may any other article whatever be brought ashore without the written authority of the Proper Officer.

5. Members of a crew going ashore for short periods may have in their possession for their own immediate use, TWO OUNCES OF TOBACCO in any form but no spirits. This concession will be granted only once in each twenty four hours.

6. Members of a crew of whatever rank finally leaving the vessel with their effects are allowed to take ashore free of duty, for their own personal consumption the following:

   Tobacco in any form .............................................. ½ lb
   Spirits (including liqueurs and cordials) ......................... 1 reputed quart
   Cigarettes ................................................................ 100
   Cigars ....................................................................... 50

7. Small packages of merchandise and any addressed packages intended as presents and not borne on the ship’s report must be produced to the Customs Boarding Officer and particulars enumerated on a Parcel’s List.
